

Acknowledgement of Receipt of Privacy Practices

Alaska Women's Cancer Care LLC uses an electronic medical record system that is part of Providence Alaska Medical Center. Our clinic routinely collaborates with other medical offices/facilities and doctors to provide the most comprehensive care for you or your family member. This collaboration is protected by HIPAA and does not require a specific permission from you. Please let us know if you have any concerns regarding this policy. Alaska Women's Cancer Care LLC respects and values your privacy as a high priority.

We are obligated, by law, to release your information (whether it is medical records or demographics) to law enforcement when it is requested.

We do not sell, rent, or release your personal information to any other entity (not protected under HIPAA) without your express permission.

Please note the AKWCC staff use texting and cell phones for information exchange with other providers and staff members concerning your care.

Please sign electronically at the reception desk that you acknowledge and understand the privacy practices of Alaska Women's Cancer Care LLC.
